THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD OF GOD

All stand. The minister says:

Praise the Lord.

The Lord's name be praised.

One of the following psalms may be read responsively

Psalm 95:1-11

O come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also.

The sea is his, for he made it, and the dry land, which his hands have formed.

O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!

For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

O that today you would listen to his voice! Do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah, as on the day at Massah in the wilderness, When your ancestors tested me, and put me to the proof, though they had seen my work.

For forty years I loathed that generation and said, "They are a people whose hearts go astray, and they do not regard my ways."

Therefore in my anger I swore, "They shall not enter my rest."

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. AMEN

OR

Psalm 100:1-5

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing.

Know that the Lord is God. It is he that made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name.

For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. AMEN

The psalm or psalms appointed for the day are said or sung (for the psalms for Sundays and Special days see the Lectionary; for the daily reading of the psalms see the table of Psalms for daily reading).

The minister and people may stand or sit for any of the Psalms and Songs.

The First Lesson

The First lesson is read from the Old Testament

One of the following is said or sung:

The Song of Zechariah or Benedictus (Luke 1:68-79)

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has looked favourably on his people and redeemed them.

He has raised up a mighty Saviour for us in the house of his servant David,

As he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets from of old, that we would be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.

Thus he has shown the mercy promised to our ancestors, has remembered his holy covenant, the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham, to grant us that we, being rescued from the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the forgiveness of their sins. By the tender mercy of our God, the dawn from on high will break upon us, to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. -

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. AMEN

OR

The Song of the Three Young Men or benedicite

All things the Lord has made, bless the Lord: give glory and eternal praise to him

Angels of the Lord, all bless the Lord: give glory and eternal praise to him.

Heavens, bless the Lord: waters above the heavens, bless the Lord.

Powers of the Lord, bless the Lord: sun and moon, bless the Lord.

Stars of heaven, bless the Lord: showers and dew, bless the Lord.

Winds of God, bless the Lord: ice and snow, bless the Lord.

Winter and summer, bless the Lord: cold and heat, bless the Lord.

Nights and days, bless the Lord: light and darkness, bless the Lord.

Lightning and clouds, bless the Lord: give glory and eternal praise to him.

Let the earth bless the Lord: give glory and eternal praise to him.

Mountains and hills, bless the Lord: all green things that grow on the earth, bless the Lord.

Springs of water, bless the Lord: seas and rivers, bless the Lord.

Fish and everything that moves in water, bless the Lord: birds of heaven, all bless the Lord.

Animals wild and tame, all bless the Lord: all men and women, bless the Lord

0 let Israel bless the Lord: give glory and eternal praise to him.

Priests of the Lord, bless the Lord: servants of the Lord, bless the Lord.

All that are upright in spirit, bless the Lord: all that are holy and humble in heart, bless the Lord.

Bless the Father, bless the Son, bless the Holy Spirit: give glory and eternal praise to him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. AMEN

OR

The Song of the Virgin Mary or magnificat (Luke 1:46-55)

And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, for he has looked with favour on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;

for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his' name..

His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever."

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. AMEN

The Second Lesson

The second lesson is read from the New Testament; or two lessons may be read, one from the Epistles or other books and one from the Gospels. One of the following is said or sung:

The Song of the Church or Te deum

We praise you O God, we acknowledge you to be the Lord.

All the earth worships you, the Father everlasting

To you all angels cry aloud: the heavens and all the powers therein.

To you cherubim and seraphim, continually do cry,

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of Sabbath, heaven and earth are full of the majesty of your glory.

The glorious company of the apostles; praise you.

The godly fellowship of the prophets, praise you.

The white-robed army of martyrs, praise you.

The holy Church throughout the world, does acknowledge you.

The Father, of an infinite majesty, your adorable true and only Son

Also the Holy Spirit, the Comforter.

You are the King of glory, O Christ; you are the everlasting Son of the Father.

When you became human to deliver humankind: you humbled yourself to be born of a virgin.

When you had overcome the sharpness of death: you opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

You sit at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.

We believe that you will come to be our judge.

We therefore pray, help your servant whom you have redeemed, with your precious blood.

May they be numbered with your saints in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save your people, and bless your heritage, govern them, and lift them up forever.

Day by day we magnify you, and we worship your name ever, world without end.

O lord, let your mercy alight upon us, as our trust is in you. O Lord, in you is my hope, let me never be confounded.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. AMEN

OR

The Song of Simeon or nunc dimittis (Luke 2:29-32)

Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word;

for my eyes have seen your salvation, - which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. AMEN

A hymn or lyric may be sung and a sermon may be preached

Creed

All stand and say or sing the Apostles' Creed

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

The Prayers

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Let us pray

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father in heaven, holy be your name. Your kingdom come; your will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily

O Lord, show your mercy upon us;

And grant us your salvation.

Endow your ministers with righteousness;

And make your chosen people joyful. O

Lord, save your people;

And give your blessing to your Church.

O Lord, be gracious to our country;

And mercifully hear us when we call upon you.

O Lord, guide our leaders;

And give them wisdom from above.

Give peace to the world, O Lord;

And let your kingdom come on earth.

O Lord, make us mindful of all in trouble and distress;

And deliver those who are oppressed and marginalized.

O God, send your Holy Spirit upon us;

And make clean our hearts within us.

The minister says the Collect or Collects of the Day, and then one of the following:

The Collect for Peace

O God, who is the author of peace and lover of concord, in whose knowledge our eternal life stands, whose service is perfect freedom: defend us your humble servants in all assaults of evil; that we surely trusting in your defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries; through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN

OR

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels and all just works do proceed, give your servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey your commandments, and also that by you we being defended from the fear of evil may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. AMEN

And at the Morning Worship one of the following:

The Collect for Grace

O Lord our Refuge, almighty and everlasting God, who has safely brought us to the beginning of this day: defend us in the same with your mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by your governance, to do always that which is righteous in your sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
AMEN

OR

O almighty Lord, and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we ask you, to direct, sanctify, and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws, protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul;

through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. AMEN

A hymn or anthem may be sung.

Then follow occasional prayers and thanksgivings, liturgical or extempore, which shall always include a prayer for the nation and its leaders. For example, one of the litanies from the Order for the Lord's Supper may be said or sung.

The thanksgiving may include the General Thanksgiving:

God of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you most humble and hearty thanks for all your goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all people. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for your boundless love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we ask you, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our redeemer, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit be all honour and glory, now and for ever. AMEN

The prayers and thanksgivings may conclude with one of the following:

Almighty God, who has given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications to you; and does promise, that when two or three are gathered together in your name you will grant their requests: fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of your servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. AMEN

OR

O Lord, we ask you mercifully to receive the prayers of your people who call upon you; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they should do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfill the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN

The announcements may be made.

A hymn may be sung while an offering is taken and is brought forward. The minister receives them and offers them to God with prayer in the name of the people. The minister may dedicate the offerings in his own words, or he may say:

O God, the Giver of all good gifts, we ask you graciously to accept this offering of your people, and so to bless it and them that peace and goodwill may abound throughout the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN

OR

Eternal almighty and loving God, who has not spared your own Son, but delivered him up for us all, and who, with him, has freely given us all things; receive these offerings which we bring and dedicate to you; and enable us; with all our gifts, so to yield ourselves to you, that with body, soul, and spirit, we may truly and freely serve you, and in your service find our deepest joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN
